

Dr Graeme Evans has lived in Little Compton for 5 years. He is a keen e-biker, outdoor swimmer and musician. He recently retired as a Professor of Art & Design having worked in universities in London and The Netherlands for 30 years, previously running an arts centre and with an earlier career in project management & finance in the energy industry.