

Having lived and worked around Heathrow my whole life, we moved to Little Compton at the end of 2020 (during Covid) to enjoy semi-retirement and are now trying our hardest to live the country life. Married with three grown up children and two grandchildren - who arrived October '22 and January '23.